

PRIVACY NOTICE

Last revised on August 08, 2025

This privacy notice for Farworld Labs, Inc. ("Company," "we," "us," or "our"), describes how and why we might collect, store, use, and/or share ("process") your information when you use our services ("Services"). By using our Services, or by accessing our websites at <https://www.farworld.gg> or <https://farcade.ai> or <https://remix.gg> or any website of ours that links to this privacy notice, or our mobile applications ("App") on iOS and Android, you are accepting and consenting to this Privacy Policy.

1. WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

In Short: We collect personal information that you provide to us, information automatically collected when you use our Services, and certain blockchain-related data.

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when you register on the Services, express an interest in obtaining information about us or our products and Services, when you participate in activities on the Services (such as chat messaging or user-generated content), or otherwise when you contact us.

Personal Information Provided by You. The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us and the Services, the choices you make, and the products and features you use. The personal information we collect may include the following:

- Your Name
- Your Email
- Your Phone Number
- Social Media User Names for any accounts you link to the Services.
- Financial Information, including information that you provide us about cryptocurrency wallets and payments
- Information from social media accounts that you use to log in to the services (in particular, information provided by Farcaster and Telegram).
- Chat Messages and User-Generated Content (UGC): Text, images, videos, or other content you submit via chat features or UGC tools in the App or Site, including metadata (e.g., timestamps, device info associated with the submission).
- App-Specific Information: For users of our mobile Apps, we may collect device permissions (e.g., for push notifications) if you enable them.

All personal information that you provide to us must be true, complete, and accurate, and you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

Information Automatically Collected.

In Short: Some information — such as your Internet Protocol (IP) address and/or browser and device characteristics — is collected automatically when you visit our Services.

We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use, or navigate the Services. This information does not reveal your specific identity (like your name or contact information) but may include device and usage information, such as your IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, device name, country, location (if you enable geolocation features), information about how and when you use our Services, and other technical information. This information is primarily needed to maintain the security and operation of our Services, and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes.

For mobile App users, we may also automatically collect:

- Device identifiers (e.g., advertising ID, device ID).
- App usage data (e.g., session duration, features accessed, crash logs).
- Push notification tokens (if you opt-in to receive notifications).

Like many businesses, we also collect information through cookies and similar technologies.

Do We Use Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies?

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies, such as web beacons and pixels, to collect and store information about your interactions with our Services. Cookies are small data files stored on your device that help us enhance your experience, maintain security, and analyze usage trends. We use:

- Essential Cookies: Necessary for the operation of the Services, such as maintaining your session during login.
- Analytics Cookies: Help us understand how users interact with our Services, such as tracking page visits and feature usage.
- Third-Party Cookies: Used by third-party services (e.g., analytics providers) to collect data for improving our Services.

You can manage your cookie preferences through your browser settings or, where applicable, through our cookie consent tool available on our websites and Apps. Disabling cookies may affect the functionality of certain features.

Blockchain-Related Information. When you participate in on-chain activities, such as skills-based wagering or Digital Asset transactions, we may collect information related to your cryptocurrency wallet address and transaction details. Wallet addresses are generally pseudonymous, but if linked to other personal information (e.g., your account details), they may be treated as personal information under this Privacy Policy. We process this information to facilitate transactions and comply with applicable laws, and we do not share it with third parties except as necessary to complete the transaction or as required by law. Note that blockchain transactions are publicly visible and permanent due to the nature of blockchain technology; once recorded, they cannot be deleted or altered.

2. HOW DO WE PROCESS YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We process your information to provide, improve, and administer our Services, communicate with you, for security and fraud prevention, and to comply with law. We may also process your information for other purposes with your consent.

We process your personal information for a variety of reasons, depending on how you interact with our Services, including:

- To facilitate account creation and authentication and otherwise manage user accounts. We may process your information so you can create and log in to your account, as well as keep your account in working order.
- To deliver and facilitate delivery of services to the user. We may process your information to provide you with the requested service, including chat messaging and UGC features in the App.
- To respond to user inquiries/offer support to users. We may process your information to respond to your inquiries and solve any potential issues you might have with the requested service.
- To send administrative information to you. We may process your information to send you details about our products and services, changes to our terms and policies, and other similar information.
- To fulfill and manage your orders. We may process your information to fulfill and manage your orders, payments, returns, and exchanges made through the Services.
- To enable user-to-user communications. We may process your information if you choose to use any of our offerings that allow for communication with another user, such as chat features.
- To request feedback. We may process your information when necessary to request feedback and to contact you about your use of our Services.
- To protect our Services. We may process your information as part of our efforts to keep our Services safe and secure, including fraud monitoring and prevention, and moderation of chat and UGC.
- To identify usage trends. We may process information about how you use our Services to better understand how they are being used so we can improve them.
- To determine the effectiveness of our marketing and promotional campaigns. We may process your information to better understand how to provide marketing and promotional campaigns that are most relevant to you.
- To save or protect an individual's vital interest. We may process your information when necessary to save or protect an individual's vital interest, such as to prevent harm.
- To facilitate skills-based wagering. We may process your financial information, such as cryptocurrency wallet addresses and transaction details, to enable participation in skills-based wagering contests. This information is processed on the blockchain via smart contracts, which may make certain transaction details publicly visible due to the transparent nature of blockchain technology. We do not share this information with third parties except as necessary to process transactions or comply with legal requirements.
- To enable push notifications and app features. For App users, we may process device tokens and preferences to send push notifications (with your consent) about updates, events, or personalized content.

3. WHEN AND WITH WHOM DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

In Short: We may share information in specific situations described in this section and/or with the following third parties.

We may share your data with third-party vendors, service providers, contractors, or agents ("third parties") who perform services for us or on our behalf and require access to such information to do that work. Examples include: payment processing, data analysis, email delivery, hosting services, customer service, and marketing efforts. We have contracts in place with our third parties, which are designed to help safeguard your personal information. This means that they cannot do anything with your personal information unless we have instructed them to do it. They will also not share your personal information with any organization apart from us. They also commit to protect the data they hold on our behalf and to retain it for the period we instruct.

The categories of third parties we may share personal information with are as follows:

- Cloud Computing Services (e.g., for app hosting and data storage).
- Analytics Services (e.g., to track app usage and trends).
- Payment Processors (e.g., for in-app purchases via app stores).
- Moderation Tools (e.g., for chat and UGC filtering and review).

We may also need to share your personal information in the following situations:

- Business Transfers. We may share or transfer your information in connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of company assets, financing, or acquisition of all or a portion of our business to another company.
- When we use Google Maps Platform APIs. We may share your information with certain Google Maps Platform APIs (e.g., Google Maps API, Places API) if location features are enabled.
- Blockchain Transactions. For on-chain activities (e.g., wagering or UGC stored on blockchain), transaction details may be publicly visible on the blockchain network, but we do not share linked personal data.

4. WHAT IS OUR STANCE ON THIRD-PARTY WEBSITES?

The Services may link to third-party websites, online services, or mobile applications and/or contain advertisements from third parties that are not affiliated with us and which may link to other websites, services, or applications. Accordingly, we do not make any guarantee regarding any such third parties, and we will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by the use of such third-party websites, services, or applications. The inclusion of a link towards a third-party website, service, or application does not imply an endorsement by us. We cannot guarantee the safety and privacy of data you provide to any third parties. Any data collected by third parties is not covered by this privacy notice. We are not responsible for the content or privacy and security practices and policies of any third parties, including other websites, services, or applications that may be linked to or from the Services. You should review the policies of such third parties and contact them directly to respond to your questions.

5. DO WE USE COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES?

We may use cookies and similar tracking technologies (like web beacons and pixels) to access or store information. Specific information about how we use such technologies and how you can refuse certain cookies is set out in our Cookie Notice.

For App users, we may use similar technologies like software development kits (SDKs) or mobile advertising IDs to track app interactions.

6. HOW DO WE HANDLE YOUR SOCIAL LOGINS?

Our Services offer you the ability to register and log in using your third-party social media account details. Where you choose to do this, we will receive certain profile information about you from your social media provider. The profile information we receive may vary depending on the social media provider concerned, but will often include your name, email address, friends list, and profile picture, as well as other information you choose to make public on such a social media platform. If you log in using Warpcast, we may also request access to other permissions related to your account.

We will use the information we receive only for the purposes that are described in this privacy notice or that are otherwise made clear to you on the relevant Services. Please note that we do not control, and are not responsible for, other uses of your personal information by your third-party social media provider. We recommend that you review their privacy notice to understand how they collect, use, and share your personal information, and how you can set your privacy preferences on their sites and apps.

7. HOW DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SAFE?

We have implemented appropriate and reasonable technical and organizational security measures designed to protect the security of any personal information we process. However, despite our safeguards and efforts to secure your information, no electronic transmission over the Internet or information storage technology can be guaranteed to be 100% secure, so we cannot promise or guarantee that hackers, cybercriminals, or other unauthorized third parties will not be able to defeat our security and improperly collect, access, steal, or modify your information. Although we will do our best to protect your personal information, transmission of personal information to and from our Services is at your own risk. You should only access the Services within a secure environment.

For chat and UGC features, we employ moderation tools (automated and human) to detect and remove harmful content, but we cannot guarantee complete prevention of unauthorized access.

8. DO WE COLLECT INFORMATION FROM MINORS?

In Short: We do not knowingly collect data from or market to children under 13 years of age, and we require parental consent for minors under 18 where applicable.

We do not knowingly solicit data from or market to individuals under 13 years of age. For general use of the Services, users must be at least 13 years old; for skills-based wagering features, users must be at least 21 years old. By using the Services, you represent that you meet these age requirements or that you are the parent or guardian of a minor and consent to such minor's use of the Services.

We comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If we learn that personal information from users under 13 has been collected, we will deactivate the account and take reasonable measures to promptly delete such data from our records. If you become aware of any data we may have collected from children under 13, please contact us at support@farworld.gg.

For users aged 13-17:

- We encourage parental involvement and oversight.
- Features like chat and UGC include safety measures such as content filtering (e.g., profanity filters), reporting tools, and moderation to prevent harmful interactions.
- Parents or guardians can request access to, correction of, or deletion of their child's data by contacting us at support@farworld.gg. We may require verification of parental identity.

If you are a parent or guardian and believe your child under 13 has provided personal information, or if you have questions about our practices, contact us at support@farworld.gg.

9. CONTROLS FOR DO-NOT-TRACK FEATURES

Most web browsers and some mobile operating systems and mobile applications include a Do-Not-Track (“DNT”) feature or setting you can activate to signal your privacy preference not to have data about your online browsing activities monitored and collected. At this stage, no uniform technology standard for recognizing and implementing DNT signals has been finalized. As such, we do not currently respond to DNT browser signals or any other mechanism that automatically communicates your choice not to be tracked online. If a standard for online tracking is adopted that we must follow in the future, we will inform you about that practice in a revised version of this privacy notice.

For App users, you can manage tracking preferences through your device settings (e.g., limit ad tracking on iOS or opt-out of personalized ads on Android).

10. DO CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS HAVE SPECIFIC PRIVACY RIGHTS?

In Short: Yes, if you are a resident of California, you are granted specific rights regarding access to your personal information.

California Civil Code Section 1798.83, also known as the “Shine The Light” law, permits our users who are California residents to request and obtain from us, once a year and free of charge, information about categories of personal information (if any) we disclosed to third parties for direct marketing purposes and the names and addresses of all third parties with which we shared personal information in the immediately preceding calendar year. If you are a California resident and would like to make such a request, please submit your request in writing to us using the contact information provided below.

If you are under 18 years of age, reside in California, and have a registered account with Services, you have the right to request removal of unwanted data that you publicly post on the Services. To request removal of such data, please contact us using the contact information provided below and include the email address associated with your account and a statement that you reside in California. We will make sure the data is not publicly displayed on the Services, but please be aware that the data may not be completely or comprehensively removed from all our systems (e.g., backups, etc.).

We may also collect other personal information outside of these categories in instances where you interact with us in person, online, or by phone or mail in the context of:

- Receiving help through our customer support channels;
- Participation in customer surveys or contests; and
- Facilitation in the delivery of our Services and to respond to your inquiries.

You may contact us by email at support@farworld.gg by referring to the contact details at the bottom of this document.

If you are using an authorized agent to exercise your right to opt out we may deny a request if the authorized agent does not submit proof that they have been validly authorized to act on your behalf.

Will your information be shared with anyone else?

We may disclose your personal information with our service providers pursuant to a written contract between us and each service provider. Each service provider is a for-profit entity that processes the information on our behalf, following the same strict privacy protection obligations mandated by the CCPA.

We may use your personal information for our own business purposes, such as for undertaking internal research for technological development and demonstration. This is not considered to be “selling” of your personal information.

Your rights with respect to your personal data

1. Right to request deletion of the data — Request to delete
 - a. You can ask for the deletion of your personal information. If you ask us to delete your personal information, we will respect your request and delete your personal information, subject to certain exceptions provided by law, such as (but not limited to) the exercise by another consumer of his or her right to free speech, our compliance requirements resulting from a legal obligation, or any processing that may be required to protect against illegal activities.
2. Right to be informed — Depending on the circumstances, you have a right to know:
 - a. whether we collect and use your personal information;
 - b. the categories of personal information that we collect;
 - c. the purposes for which the collected personal information is used;
 - d. whether we sell or share personal information to third parties;
 - e. the categories of personal information that we sold, shared, or disclosed for a business purpose;
 - f. the categories of third parties to whom the personal information was sold, shared, or disclosed for a business purpose;
 - g. the business or commercial purpose for collecting, sharing, or selling personal information; and
 - h. the specific pieces of personal information we collected about you. In accordance with applicable law, we are not obligated to provide or delete consumer information that is de-identified in response to a consumer request or to re-identify individual data to verify a consumer request.
3. Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of a Consumer’s Privacy Rights
 - a. We will not discriminate against you if you exercise your privacy rights.
4. Right to Limit Use and Disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information
5. Verification process
 - a. Upon receiving your request, we will need to verify your identity to determine you are the same person about whom we have the information in our system. These verification efforts require us to ask you to provide information so that we can match it with information you have previously provided us. For instance, depending on the type of request you submit, we may ask you to provide certain information so that we can match the information you provide with the information we already have on file, or we may contact you through a communication method (e.g., phone or email) that you have previously provided to us. We may also use other verification methods as the circumstances dictate.

We will only use personal information provided in your request to verify your identity or authority to make the request. To the extent possible, we will avoid requesting additional information from you for the purposes of verification. However, if we cannot verify your identity from the information already maintained by us, we may request that you provide additional information for the purposes of verifying your identity and for security or fraud-prevention purposes. We will delete such additionally provided information as soon as we finish verifying you.

6. Other privacy rights

- a. You may object to the processing of your personal information.
- b. You may request correction of your personal data if it is incorrect or no longer relevant, or ask to restrict the processing of the information.
- c. You can designate an authorized agent to make a request under the CCPA on your behalf. We may deny a request from an authorized agent that does not submit proof that they have been validly authorized to act on your behalf in accordance with the CCPA.

To exercise these rights, you can contact us by email at support@farworld.gg or by referring to the contact details at the bottom of this document. If you have a complaint about how we handle your data, we would like to hear from you.

11. DO VIRGINIA RESIDENTS HAVE SPECIFIC PRIVACY RIGHTS?

In Short: Yes, if you are a resident of Virginia, you may be granted specific rights regarding access to and use of your personal information.

Yes, if you are a resident of Virginia, you may be granted specific rights regarding access to and use of your personal information.

If you have questions or comments about this notice, you may email us at support@farworld.gg or by post to:

*Farworld Labs, Inc.
131 Continental Drive, Suite 305
Newark, DE 19713
United States*

14. HOW CAN YOU REVIEW, UPDATE, OR DELETE THE DATA WE COLLECT FROM YOU?

Based on the applicable laws of your country, you may have the right to request access to the personal information we collect from you, change that information, or delete it. To request to review, update, or delete your personal information, please email us at support@farworld.gg.

15. DATA RETENTION

We retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, including to provide the Services, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements. For example, account information is retained while your account is active and may be retained for a reasonable period thereafter to comply with tax or regulatory requirements. When we no longer need your personal information, we will securely delete or anonymize it, unless required by law to retain it. If you request deletion of your data, we will delete it subject to applicable legal exceptions

16. ACCESSIBILITY

We are committed to ensuring that our Services and websites are accessible to individuals with disabilities in compliance with applicable laws, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you encounter accessibility barriers, please contact us at support@farworld.gg, and we will work to address your needs.
